Annual Wolfe Lecture in Holocaust Studies
Elly Gotz in Conversation with Doris Bergen and Tomaz Jardim

“When I gave up hate, I started to live”
Award Ceremony and live interview with Elly Gotz, winner of this year’s Wolfe Chair Holocaust Studies Student Impact Prize
Date: Wednesday, January 31 at 1 PM
Location: Zoom (Online only)
Please visit www.jewishstudies.utoronto.ca/events for Zoom details.
Co-sponsored by the Chancellors Rose and Ray Wolfe Professor of Holocaust Studies

Granovsky-Gluskin Lecture in Jewish Studies
Lihi Ben Shitrit
University of Georgia

“Women and the Holy City: The Struggle over Jerusalem’s Sacred Space”
Date: Monday, February 12 at 4 PM

Israel and Sala Dinsehmemorial Lecture
Dov-Ber Kerler
Indiana University

“Long time in coming, Fast but not Furious: The Miracle of Modern Yiddish Culture”
Date: Monday, February 26 at 4 PM

Joseph Lebovic Lecture
Louis Kaplan
University of Toronto
Curator Talk: “Ilse Bing at Sea: Navigating a German-Jewish Refugee’s Photographic Journey”
Date: Monday, March 4 at 4 PM

Roz and Ralph Halbert Lecture in Jewish Studies
Ilana Parides
Hebrew University of Jerusalem

“The Book of Ruth and the Question of Migration”
Date: Monday, March 18 at 4 PM

“Lutks es Hamantashen”
A lively academic debate between ATCJS Professors
Date: Wednesday, March 20 at 7 PM
Location: Al Green Theatre, Miles Nadal JCC, 750 Spadina Avenue

Dr. Max and Gianna Glassman Israel Exchange Scholar
Hila Shalem Bahadar
Tel Aviv University

“The Low-Temperature Melting Pot: Inter-Ethnic Relations among Immigrants in the Israeli Transit Camps”
Date: Monday, March 25 at 4 PM

Conference: Philosophical Readings of the Book of Job
Date: Monday, April 1 - Tuesday, April 2
Location: JHB118 (170 St. George Street, 3rd Floor)

Keynote Lecture:
“Hegel or Job: Reading Lev Shestov in Wartime Kyiv”
Marc Shores
Yale University
Date: Monday, April 1 at 4 PM
Location: JHB100

Isadore and Rosalie Sharp Event
Passover Haggadot Collection: Open House
Date: Tuesday, April 9 from 12 - 5PM
Location: Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library, 120 St. George Street

Schwartz-Reisman Graduate Student Conference in Jewish Studies
Featuring presentations by advanced PhD students in the Granovsky-Gluskin Collaborative Graduate Program in Jewish Studies
Date: Monday, April 15 (all day)
Location: JHB100

Himel Family Yiddish Lecture Series
Co-sponsored by the Al and Malka Green Fund in Yiddish Studies
Location: JHB100/Zoom
Please visit www.jewishstudies.utoronto.ca/events for details on how to access Zoom.
All events in this series are conducted entirely in Yiddish

Rachel Rojanski
Brown University
“Between Prejudice and Complicated Reality: Was Yiddish Persecuted in Israel?”

Szonja Komoróczy
Central European University
“Should we see it as a Fatherland? Jews and Yiddish in Hungary”

Sebastian Schulman
Writer, Editor, Literary Translator
“Esperanto: The Other Jewish Language”

Dov-Ber Kerler
Indiana University

“Yiddish scholarship in Yiddish and Yiddish studies of goyish (any other language)”

Simo Muir
University College London
“The History of Jews in Finland seen through Yiddish Performances”

Magdalena Kozłowska
University of Warsaw

“Bundist Youth Movement: Tsukunft”

All events are located in JHB100 unless otherwise stated. JHB100 is on the main floor of the Jackman Humanities Building at 170 St. George Street, Toronto, Ontario.

For the most updated information, please visit www.jewishstudies.utoronto.ca/events.